Dear Parents,

We have had the most amazing week at school, the children have been immersed in fun, challenge and enrichment all week!

On Monday we celebrated our World Book Day. Thank you for the amazing effort you made with the costumes and props your children brought to school, you really did the most excellent job!

All of our children looked amazing, as did our incredible teachers. A massive thank you to Mrs Fairhurst for organising a real-life author visit. Jenni Spangler, author of The Vanishing Trick really inspired the children and helped them to recognise their own gifts and talents in their writing.

Class 3 had an extra special treat, working with Jenni on an inspiring writers workshop and were given their own 'magpie' books to enable them to record thoughts, ideas and notes for their future novels.

Class 1 were so inspired by Jenni that they created their own story book display in their classroom the very same day, well done Class 1!

Class 2 were also busy writers on Monday - they each designed their own mini books taking on the role of author and illustrator. The books really were good enough to publish!

We have also continued to celebrate science week and have been busy testing the strength of bridges, investigating finger prints and dissecting flowers to understand how they grow and reproduce. The children have focussed on an activity a day to engage and challenge their scientific knowledge and skills.

This week our church also welcomed the new Priest in Charge Lynn Caudwell to our community. We are very excited to work alongside Lynn in God's love and we will welcome her into our school to meet all the children in the coming weeks. There is a special Family Service on Sunday for Mothering Sunday at 10.45am and some of our children will read prayers and present welcome cards from all the children at our school. All families are welcome to attend.

Our merit winners this week, we are so proud of you all!

Newsflash! We have extended the deadline to enter the recycled musical instrument competition until Monday 20th March so if you've not already entered get creating this weekend!

Finally, please don't forget chocolate bingo tonight, we are very much looking forward to a fun night of bingo with some delicious looking prizes to be won!

Have a wonderful weekend and happy Mother's Day to all our special ladies. We hope you have a day as special as you!
