Dear parents,

The children have worked incredibly hard this week and we are very proud of them all, we've plenty of great news to share with you.

Class 1 have been working hard on their handwriting and their knowledge of shapes, they are working very hard to record their work and develop into independent learners.

Class 2 have been working on poetry and they have created some heartfelt remembrance poems. They have looked at the features of poetry and used them to great effect in their own work.

Class 3 have been working hard with calculations and looking carefully at all four operations. They have used their knowledge to problem solve and answer complex questions within their own year groups.

Open the Book continue to visit every Thursday and this week some of the children helped to act out the story of the Good Samaritan. This was a very special collective worship where the story was brought to life by the children and they really reflected on the meaning and message of this important Bible story.

This week the whole school has come together to create a beautiful remembrance display. The children have contributed through both art and poetry, and we have considered the significance of the poppy and what it represents.

This artwork is now displayed in the hall for everyone to enjoy, I am sure you will agree, it really is stunning. A special thank you to Mrs O'Donoghue who created the atmospheric painting which the children have added to.

Next Friday we will be celebrating Children in Need and raising funds via an Odd Socks Day. Please do encourage your children to come to school wearing odd socks and any Pudsey accessories in exchange for £1.

Please don't forget that it's the PTA quiz next Friday too – it's set to be a great evening of fun, if you can't make it please consider buying a lottery ticket or two – available in the school playground every morning next week.

As always, thank you for your continuous support and encouragement as we grow together as a school and community.

Kind regards
