Dear parents,

Next week we will launch our recommended reads across the whole school. Recommended reads are a selection of 25 books for each cohort from reception all the way up to year 6. The books have been chosen by the staff and the children to cover a wide range of genres. We have a range of fiction and non-fiction, adventure stories, poems, classical tales, stories about diversity and stories to make you giggle, the list is endless!

These books will be enjoyed in class and then taken home by the children to read with families. Please do take good care of these books when they come home and encourage your children to read, enjoy and look after them. Books must then be returned for the next child and family to enjoy. Effectively we have our own high quality library system for every year group.

This was an investment of over £1,000 to refresh our whole library system and wouldn't have been possible without the help and support of the PTFA. Thank you so much we really appreciate the hard work you all do for our school to make special purchases like this possible – we simply wouldn't have the books if we didn't have such an active and hard-working PTFA.

Here we have a selection of our children showing off their recommended reads, each list is on our website under curriculum subjects – English - recommended reads. Please do check them out with your children and decide which books you would like to enjoy first!

On Monday we need to send final numbers for the Archdeacon of Macclesfield, Jane Proudfoot's, welcome mass on Sunday 12th May. I am thrilled to share that we have over half of the school attending, this amazing! Please do get in touch if your child would like to join, it really will be a fabulous event. I would also like to extend a massive thankyou to all the families and children that have committed to this mass, thank you so much!
Finally, our merit winners this week.
