

POTT SHRIGLEY CHURCH SCHOOL

HEADS UP!

3rd May 2019

The week started very smartly with our children dressing up and acting out their role as Victorian School children with the school ma'am at Macclesfield museum.

Apparently, you could hear a pin drop in the classroom. Perhaps we will implement a few more Victorian strategies at school?!

Lucky reception had another trip on Wednesday when they went to visit their new friends at Adlington Primary School. The children played with construction blocks to make a pirate ship and are looking forward to a visit from Adlington. They all wrote a lovely thank you card - we are focusing on writing skills in reception this term. If you would like to help by practising at home, that would help the children greatly in their learning journey.

Election Day went smoothly and class two also enjoyed a visit from student artist Puff Williams on Thursday. They are working on a banner to take to the leavers' church service at Astbury in July.

You will have seen from the diary dates we sent out last week that we are participating in the Bollington Big Sing on the 24th May. Year 1 to 6 are actually singing and reception will come along to watch. The songs we are singing together with other schools are quite tricky so if you get a chance, could you have a little practice at home. Links below. Our first rehearsal is next Wednesday. Hopefully there will be safety in numbers!

The song we are singing on our own is Welcome to the sixties from the musical Hairspray <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=V97XiAdsVXc>. All children should have come home with a copy of the words which are attached to this email. The children will be wearing school uniform (summer dresses please) for the concert but we would also like them to have a sixties style accessory - hair band, bow, bracelets, etc. We will discuss this with the children. Let us know if you have any trouble finding something.

The Ofsted report was sent out on paper this week to all parents. If you have not received your copy, please let us know. It will also be available on the Ofsted website from next week.

Hope you all enjoy the bank holiday weekend.

Kind regards
Ms J Bromley
