

Heads Up

Dear parents

We started the week following up on our Road Safety lessons and crossing the road with PCSOs Amy and Lisa. The children listened really well and were very sensible.

Another community activity involved us planting saplings from the Woodland Trust on the cricket field on Thursday with Tony from the cricket club. Fingers crossed that they grow well and survive the winter (it was a very chilly afternoon!).

Thanks to everyone who sent in colour themed gifts for the PTA Christmas raffle. There is still time to contribute if you forgot; next Friday is red or white items. Raffle tickets will be coming home today so please sell what you can and return any monies raised, ticket stubs or unsold tickets to the school office by Tuesday 14th December.

I hope that you have an enjoyable weekend.

Kind regards

Joanne Bromley
