

*"Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other,
just as in Christ, God forgave you"*
Ephesians 4:32

Dear parents

Just a quick hello from me this week.

We would like to thank Andy Langdon for joining us on Remembrance Day this week. Andy came and to lead us in a two minute silence and help the children to understand that we are thinking about all members of our armed forces, not just those from long ago. He answered questions and even shared some of his uniform!

The PTA are planning a Christmas Quiz and raffle to raise some money for school and also so we can socialise, even if it is only via ZOOM. Next week, we would like to ask you to donate a prize for either a Ladies or Gents Hamper (new toiletries / socks / DIY / craft items) and in exchange for this, on Wednesday 18th November, the children can wear their own clothes – whatever they choose as long as they also being a warm coat to school! Please try to support us with a gift for one of these hampers; the PTA money goes directly to benefit your children – there are no middlemen!

I hope that you are all managing as best you can during the lockdown.

If you need any help from us, please do ask.

Enjoy the weekend and stay safe.

Kind Regards

Joanne Bromley
